The purposes of this chapter are to regulate relations between residential landlords and tenants and to protect tenants from arbitrary, discriminatory, or retaliatory evictions. This legislation is designed to preserve the public peace, health and safety, and advance the housing policies of the City.

§ 5.45.020 Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, each of the following terms is defined as follows:

"Landlord" means any person, partnership, corporation, or other business entity offering for rent or lease any residential property in the City. "Landlord" shall include the agent or representative of the landlord, provided that such agent or representative shall have full authority to answer for the landlord and enter into binding agreements on the landlord's behalf.

"Notice of termination" means a written notice that includes all of the components identified in Section 5.45.060.

"Owner-occupied residence" means a single dwelling unit in which an individual retains no less than a fifty percent ownership interest in the individual unit and resides in that unit as his or her permanent residence no less than ten months of any calendar year.

"Rental unit" or "residential real property" means any unit in any real property, regardless of zoning status, including the land appurtenant thereto, that is rented or available for rent for residential use or occupancy (regardless of whether the unit is also used for other purposes), together with all housing services connected with use or occupancy of such property, such as common areas and recreational facilities held out for use by the tenant. A rental unit includes a single-family home.

"Tenant" means any person having the legal responsibility for the payment of rent for residential property in the City. "Tenant" shall include the agent or representative of the tenant, provided that such agent or representative shall have full authority to answer for the tenant and enter into binding agreements on the tenant's behalf.

§ 5.45.030 Applicability.

A. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all rental units within the City where a notice to vacate/quit any such rental unit has been served after May 1, 2026.

EXHIBIT A

B. The provisions of this chapter may not be waived, and any term of any lease, contract, or other agreement which purports to waive or limit a tenant's substantive or procedural rights under this chapter are contrary to public policy, unenforceable, and void.

§ 5.45.040 Cause for Termination.

A. No landlord may terminate a residential tenancy of a rental unit, recover possession of a rental unit or otherwise endeavor to recover possession of a rental unit in the City that has been continuously and lawfully occupied by a tenant for 12 months or more unless the landlord can demonstrate all of the following:

1. That the landlord possesses a valid business license pursuant to Chapter 5.04 of this Code and has properly registered the rental unit pursuant to Section 5.45.090 below; and
2. That the landlord has provided the tenant with a notice of tenant rights in accordance with Section 5.45.070; and
3. That the landlord served a notice of termination pursuant to Section 5.45.060; and
4. That the landlord has not accepted and will not accept rent or any other consideration in return for the continued use of the rental unit beyond the term of the terminated tenancy in compliance with California Civil Code Sections 1945, 1946 and 1946.1; and
5. The existence of one of the following “at fault just cause” grounds for termination:
 - a. Default in the payment of rent.
 - b. A breach of a material term of the lease, as described in paragraph (3) of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure, including, but not limited to, violation of a provision of the lease after being issued a written notice to correct the violation.
 - c. Maintaining, committing, or permitting the maintenance or commission of a nuisance as described in paragraph (4) of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

EXHIBIT A

- f. Criminal activity by the tenant on the residential real property, including any common areas, or any criminal activity or criminal threat, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 422 of the Penal Code, on or off the residential real property, that is directed at any owner or agent of the owner of the residential real property.

6. The existence of one of the following "no fault just cause" grounds for termination:
- a.
 - i. Intent to occupy the residential real property by the owner or the owner's spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, parents, or grandparents for a minimum of 12 continuous months as that person's primary residence.
 - ii. For leases entered into on or after July 1, 2020, or July 1, 2022, if the lease is for a tenancy in a mobilehome, subsection (i) shall apply only if the tenant agrees, in writing, to the termination, or if a provision of the lease allows the owner to terminate the lease if the owner, or the owner's spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, parents, or grandparents, unilaterally decides to occupy the residential real property. I. If the intended occupant fails to occupy the rental unit within 90 days after the tenant vacates or fails to occupy the rental unit as their primary residence for at least 12 consecutive months, the owner shall offer the unit to the tenant who vacated it at the same rent and lease terms in effect at the time the tenant vacated and shall reimburse the tenant for reasonable moving expenses incurred in excess of any relocation assistance that was paid to the tenant in connection with the written notice.

II. If the intended occupant moves into the rental unit within 90 days after the tenant vacates, but dies before having occupied the rental unit as a primary residence for 12 months, as required by above, this will not be considered a failure to comply with this section or a material violation of this section by the owner.

vii. For a new tenancy commenced during the time periods described in subsection (a)(v) above, the accommodations shall be offered and rented or leased at the lawful rent in effect at the time any notice of termination of tenancy is served.

viii. As used in this subsection:

Failure to file notice the notice of termination with the Community Development Department shall be an affirmative defense to an eviction.

B. A landlord who has sent a notice of termination in accordance with Section 5.45.040(E) must notify the Community Development Department of the status of the residential tenancy within 60 days of sending the tenant a notice of termination.

§ 5.45.070 Notice of Tenant Rights

A. Landlords must provide to each tenant in a rental unit a notice of tenant rights under this chapter in the three predominant languages spoken in the City. Each notice shall include a proof of service. The City shall provide notices for landlord use. The use of the City provided forms shall be prima facie evidence that the landlord has provided the proper notice. The notice shall contain the information and be in substantially the same form as follows:

The City of Newark regulates the relationship between most landlords and tenants within the City. Generally, a landlord may only terminate your tenancy for specific reasons, which are set forth in Chapter 5.45 of the Newark Municipal Code. Examples of such reasons include, but are not limited to, a failure to pay rent on time as agreed to in the rental contract. In addition to State and Federal Laws, Chapter 5.45 of the Newark Municipal Code creates certain rights for landlords and tenants. Visit the City of Newark website for more information.

B. Landlords must provide tenants with the notice of tenant rights in accordance with subsection A of this section in the following circumstances:

1. No later than July 1, 2026;
2. When entering a lease or rental agreement;
3. When renewing a lease or rental agreement;
4. With a notice of termination;
5. At such times as required by the City of Newark, which may include, but is not limited to, when this chapter is significantly amended.

§ 5.45.080 Civil Remedies.

A. Whenever a landlord retaliates against a tenant for the exercise of any rights under this chapter or engages in activities prohibited under this chapter, the tenant may institute a civil proceeding for money damages, including general and/or punitive damages, or injunctive relief, or both. This section creates a private right of action to enforce all terms, rights, and obligations under this chapter.

B. Any tenant who receives a notice of termination may bring a civil action against the landlord to contest the validity of each necessary component and pre-condition for service of the notice of termination as required by this chapter and to request injunctive relief to halt the termination of tenancy.

1. A landlord's inability to demonstrate compliance with any individual component of or pre-condition to serve a notice of termination as required by this chapter will invalidate, nullify, and avoid the effect of a notice of termination. If a notice of termination is invalidated, the tenant(s) will be entitled to costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred to invalidate the notice of termination.

2. If a landlord can demonstrate compliance with each pre-condition to serve the notice of termination to the tenant(s) by a preponderance of the evidence, the notice of termination will be deemed valid and the landlord is entitled to costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred to defend the notice of termination.

C. Any tenant may bring a civil action to determine the applicability of this chapter to the tenancy, including, but not limited to, a determination of whether the dwelling unit is a rental unit.

D. The city attorney may seek injunctive relief based on violations of this section.

§ 5.45.090 Property Registration and Fees.

A. A landlord shall register each rental unit within the City. The registration shall be on forms provided by the City and shall include the name and mailing address of the owner or owners of the rental unit as well as any other information deemed necessary by the City.

B. For the sole purpose of reimbursing the City for the reasonable costs of maintaining property registration records and related administrative systems required by this chapter, the landlord of each rental unit shall pay a fee in an amount to be set by the City for each rental unit.

§ 5.50.030 Notice of Availability of Rent Review.

A. Notice of Availability of Rent Review Required. In addition to the notice of a rent increase required by Civil Code Section 827(b), and at the time when a landlord provides notice of any rent increase, the landlord shall also provide notice of the availability of the rent review procedure established by this chapter. The notice of availability of rent review required by subsection C of this section shall be provided by the landlord at the time when a landlord provides notice of any rent increase in the three predominant languages spoken in the City. The City Manager or designee shall determine the predominant languages spoken in the City and shall ensure that copies of the notice of availability of rent review required by subsection C of this section are made available to landlords by the City in those three languages. Any rent increase accomplished in violation of this chapter shall be void, and no landlord may take any action to enforce such an invalid rent increase. Any rent increase in violation of this chapter shall operate as an affirmative defense to an unlawful detainer action based on failure to pay any illegal rent increase. Any tenant required to pay an illegal rent increase may recover all illegal rent increase amounts actually paid by the tenant. If a landlord fails to properly notice a tenant pursuant to this chapter, the landlord must re-notice the tenant in accordance with this section prior to demanding or accepting any increase in rent.

B. Contents of Notice. All notices of the availability of rent review shall be in writing, shall provide the name, address and phone number of the landlord and shall be personally delivered to the tenant or mailed to the tenant at the address of the tenant's residential property. Service by mail shall be presumed complete within five calendar days of mailing. This presumption may be rebutted by the tenant.

EXHIBIT A

C. Text of Notice. In addition to all other information provided in the notice of the availability of rent review required by this chapter, each such notice, which may be modified by the City Manager to reflect any changes in the law, shall substantively state:

NOTICE: Under Civil Code Section 827(b) a landlord must provide a tenant with at least 30 days' notice prior to a rent increase of 10% or less and at least 90 days' notice of a rent increase of greater than 10%. Under Chapter 5.50 of the Newark Municipal Code, a landlord must, at the same time as a notice of a rent increase, provide this notice of the City's rent review procedure, before demanding or accepting any increase in rent. You are encouraged to contact the owner or manager of your rental unit to discuss the rent increase. However, if you have received notice of a rent increase that: 1) will increase your rent more than 5% above the base rent you paid last month; or 2) follows one or more prior rent increases within the past year where the combined rent increases are more than 5% than the base rent paid prior to the first rent increase over the past year, you may request rent review, which includes conciliation and mediation, of your rent increase. Such a request must be submitted in writing within 15 calendar days of your receiving notice of the rent increase or post marked within 15 calendar days of receipt if mailed. You must submit a copy of the notice of rent increase at the same time you submit the rent review request. To request review of your rent increase, please contact the Community Development Department of the City of Newark, 37101 Newark Blvd., Newark, CA 94560. Under Civil Code Section 1942.5, it is illegal for a landlord to retaliate against a tenant for lawfully and peaceably exercising their legal rights.

§ 5.50.040 Rent Review.

A. Request for Rent Review. A tenant may seek rent review when the proposed rent increase: (1) raises the rent to an amount more than five percent than the base rent; or (2) follows a prior rent increase or rent increases imposed within the previous twelve-month period where the combined rent increases are more than five percent than the base rent paid prior to the first rent increase of the twelve-month period. The tenant seeking rent review must submit the request in writing to the Director and the request must be received by the Director or their designee, or post marked (if submitted by mail), within fifteen calendar days of the tenant's receipt of the notice of rent increase. The request must include a copy of the landlord's notice of rent increase.

B. Conciliation and Mediation. The rent review shall consist of conciliation pursuant to subsection D of this section and, if required, mediation pursuant to subsection E of this section. After determining that a proposed rent increase meets the criteria for initiation of rent review set forth in subsection A of this section, the Director shall attempt to contact the landlord to initiate conciliation procedures pursuant to paragraph (D)(1) of this section within three business days.

EXHIBIT A

C. Impact on Rent Increase. A request for rent review shall not delay the effective date of a rent increase. If appropriate, the parties may enter into a mutual private agreement to delay the effective date of a rent increase or reach any other agreement to effectively reimburse rent increases paid by the tenant.

D. Conciliation.

1. Duration of Conciliation. After the Director contacts the landlord pursuant to subsection B of this section, the Director shall provide the landlord with a copy of the tenant's rent review request form and the landlord shall respond to acknowledge the rent review request either orally or in writing within ten business days. Failure of the landlord to respond to the Director within ten business days, absent a finding of good cause by the Director, shall void the rent increase. Good cause for failure to respond shall include, but not be limited to, illness, unanticipated absence from the office, emergency situations, and other similar circumstances. The Director shall attempt conciliation, which may include peer-to-peer counseling, of the rent increase for a period not to exceed ten business days following acknowledgement of the rent review request by the landlord.

2. Participation. The landlord and tenant shall participate in conciliation and shall provide relevant information, exchange proposals, reasonably consider proposals by opposite parties and engage in discussion(s) regarding the rent increase and issues related to the rent increase. One or more tenants affected by a common rent increase may simultaneously participate in the same conciliation proceeding with consent of the landlord.

3. Failure to Participate. Failure of the tenant to participate in conciliation of the rent increase at issue shall bar the tenant from seeking mediation pursuant to subsection E of this section and shall bar the tenant from seeking any further remedies under this chapter for such rent increase. Failure of the landlord to participate in conciliation shall void the rent increase.

4. Agreement During Conciliation. If the parties agree to a resolution during conciliation, they may formalize the agreement in a standard form signed by both parties. The City shall not be a party to such an agreement, nor shall the City assume any responsibility for enforcement of its terms.

5. Failure to Resolve. If the parties do not resolve the rent dispute during conciliation, the Director shall inform the parties that the conciliation process is concluded and the tenant shall be entitled to seek mediation, pursuant to Section subsection E of this section, within five business days. Failure of the tenant to seek mediation shall bar the tenant from pursuing any further remedies under this chapter for the rent increase at issue.

E. Mediation.

EXHIBIT A

1. Notice and Date. Upon request for mediation, the mediation shall be scheduled and held before the rent review officer within sixty calendar days of the Director's receipt of the rent review request, or as soon thereafter as the mediation may be scheduled. The City Manager shall establish a specified date and time each month for mediations to be held. The City Manager may schedule a special mediation date and time in addition to the established mediation date and time, if the City Manager determines, in their discretion, that a special mediation is appropriate for a particular rent review. The Director shall provide the landlord and the tenant notice of the mediation date and location at least ten calendar days prior to the mediation.

2. Factors. The rent review officer will afford the landlord and the tenant an opportunity to explain their respective positions at the mediation of a rent dispute. After hearing from both parties, and taking into consideration such factors as the hardship to the tenant, the frequency and amount of prior rent increases, the landlord's mortgage payments and other costs associated with owning and maintaining the property, the landlord's interest in earning a reasonable rate of return, and any other factors that may assist the rent review officer in determining a fair resolution to the dispute, the rent review officer will make a recommendation to the parties for the resolution of their dispute. One or more tenants affected by a common rent increase may elect to simultaneously participate in the same mediation proceeding with consent of the landlord.

3. Agreement. If the parties agree to a resolution proposed by the rent review officer they may formalize the agreement in a standard form signed by both parties. Neither the City nor the rent review officer shall be a party to such an agreement, nor shall the City or rent review officer assume any responsibility for enforcement of its terms.

4. Failure to Appear. If the tenant requesting rent review appears at a mediation, but the landlord who has been given notice of the mediation as required by paragraph 1 of this subsection fails to appear before the rent review officer without good cause, the rent increase shall be void, and the landlord may not take any action to enforce such an invalid rent increase. If a tenant who has been given proper notice of rent review as required by paragraph 1 of this subsection fails to appear for the mediation without good cause, or if both the tenant and landlord fail to appear without good cause, the rent review officer shall dismiss the case and the tenant will be barred from subsequently challenging such increase pursuant to this chapter. Good cause for failure to appear shall include, but not be limited to, illness, death, vehicle malfunction, and other similar circumstances. If either party fails to appear for good cause, the mediation shall be rescheduled as soon as reasonably possible.

F. Retaliatory Eviction. Commencement of eviction proceedings against a tenant for exercising their rights under this chapter shall be considered a retaliatory eviction. Under

EXHIBIT A

Civil Code Section 1942.5, it is illegal for a landlord to retaliate against a tenant for lawfully and peaceably exercising their legal rights.

§ 5.50.050 Miscellaneous.

A. Annual Review. The Director shall annually prepare a report to the Council assessing the effectiveness of the rent review program established under this chapter and recommending changes as may be appropriate.

B. Property Registration and Fees.

1. A landlord shall register each residential property within the City. The registration shall be on forms provided by the City and shall include the name and mailing address of the owner or owners of the residential property as well as any other information deemed necessary by the City.

2. For the sole purpose of reimbursing the City for the reasonable costs of implementing this chapter, including costs associated with conciliation and mediation, the landlord of each residential shall pay a fee in an amount to be set by the City for each residential property.

C. Operative Date. This chapter shall be operative May 1, 2026.
